Easter Assembly

Thanks to all of you who came to our Easter Assembly and supported the cake and Fair-trade stalls.

Skipathon

Don't forget to make sure your child has clothing in school tomorrow suitable for skipping as it is our Skipathon day. If you have got sponsor money we will collect it after the Easter holidays unless you are convinced your child will reach their goal and you want to send their sponsor money in on the day! I am sure they will. Thanks for your support for this great event!

Good Behaviour Guide

We have updated our behaviour system in school and therefore I have given you the latest "Good Behaviour Guide" for parents. The full policy is on our Learning Platform. One of the things we have changed is the stages of sanctions that a child might go through. We are losing the term "severe clause" as I have never liked it and replacing it with a colour code system of yellow, orange and red. Should be much simpler for all of us (including me) to understand!

New School name

I am pleased to tell you that the governors have decided to rename the new school: -

Jesmond Gardens Primary School

It was not an easy decision as many people had very mixed views on the new name. However, we took into account everyone's views and opinions and felt that in the end we need to keep the word Jesmond in the name. Next term will see the children designing a new school logo and we will have a new uniform available for September which is likely to be blue, with a white polo. However, we shall have a year of transition where both burgundy and blue can be worn. I do not expect parents to go out and buy brand new uniform before the old is worn out or is too small!

Happy Easter
